Second hand goods dealers

Last Modified July 12, 2024

Persons who deal in second hand goods must be registered with the council under the County of Lancashire Act 1984, unless they fall under certain exemptions or are registered under the Consumer Credit Act. Anyone found that isn't duly registered can be prosecuted.

Second hand goods dealers must maintain a register of all transactions.

This protects dealers from allegations relating to receiving stolen goods and to enable identification of persons passing on stolen goods.

Not all second hand goods require registration. Further details are available in the guidance notes.

Apply for a second hand goods dealer registration

Apply for a second hand dealers licence

Or you can [download and complete the application form \[PDF 124KB\]](#) and return with the fee as stated on the form.

The application will be forwarded to trading standards for their information and we aim to issue your registration within 10 working days of receipt. Certificates do not expire but the council should be informed of any amendments such as change of address of any person or premises registered.

Tacit consent

Tacit consent applies. This means that you will be able to act as though your application is granted if you have not heard from us by the end of the target completion period.

Failed application redress/licence holder redress

Please contact Blackpool Council's licensing service in the first instance.

Complaints

- Consumer complaint: We would always advise that in the event of a complaint the first contact is made with the trader by you - preferably in the form of a letter (with proof of delivery). If that has not worked, if you are located in the UK, Citizens Advice Consumer Service can give you advice. From outside the UK contact the European Consumer Centre for Services
- Other redress: Complaints about the operation of the premises should be directed to Blackpool Council licensing service
