Apply for a street collection permit

If you wish to collect money or sell articles for charitable purposes in any street or public place you must obtain a street collection permit from the council.

Permission for a street collection is only granted where the people of Blackpool will derive a benefit from the collection. (i.e. a local charity or a national charity which operates in the Blackpool area). Collectors should be over the age of 16 years.

Collections held on private property do not require a permit, however if you intend to visit a number of premises a house to house collection licence may be required.

The 12 month period for street collections runs from April to March each year. The public protection sub-committee considers all applications for the forthcoming year at its meeting in March.

Blackpool Council maintains a list of street collection permits issued by this authority.

Charitable collections by way of Direct Debit pledges are administered by the Institute of Fundraising under a site management agreement that came into effect in 2013. The IoF maintain a diary of face to face fundraising collections. If you wish to carry out or complain about a direct debit collection you can telephone the IoF on 020 7840 1000.

Before applying please read the street collection policy and guidance notes.
