

Zoos and Aquaria

Eligibility criteria	At least two months before making an application for a licence, the applicant must give notice in writing (including by electronic means) to Blackpool Council of their intention to make the application. The notice must identify: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the zoo's location • the types of animals and approximate number of each group kept for exhibition on the premises and the arrangements for their accommodation, maintenance and wellbeing • the approximate numbers and categories of staff to be employed in the zoo • the approximate number of visitors and motor vehicles for which accommodation is to be provided • the approximate number and position of access to be provided to the premises • how required conservation measures will be implemented at the zoo At least two months before making the application, the applicant must also publish notice of that intention in one local newspaper and one national newspaper and exhibit a copy of that notice. The notice must identify the location of the zoo and state that the application notice to Blackpool Council is available to be inspected at the Licensing Service's offices.
Relevant legislation	The Zoo Licensing Act 1981 Zoo Licensing Act 1981 - OPSI website
Application Evaluation Process	When considering an application Blackpool Council shall take into account any representations made by or on behalf of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the applicant • the chief officer of police in the relevant area • the appropriate authority - this is either the enforcing authority or relevant authority in whose area the zoo will be situated • the governing body of any national institution concerned with the operation of zoos • where part of the zoo is not situated in the area of the local authority with power to grant the licence, a planning authority for the relevant area (other than a county planning authority) • any person alleging that the zoo would affect

	the health or safety of people living in the neighbourhood <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • anyone stating that the zoo would affect the health or safety of anyone living near it • any other person whose representations might show grounds on which the authority has a power or duty to refuse to grant a licence Before granting or refusing to grant the licence, Blackpool Council shall consider any inspectors' reports based on their inspection of the zoo, consult the applicant about any conditions they propose should be attached to the licence and make arrangements for an inspection to be carried out. At least 28 days notice of the inspection shall be provided by Blackpool Council. Blackpool Council will not grant the licence if they feel that the zoo would adversely affect the health or safety of people living in near it, or seriously affect the preservation of law and order or if they are not satisfied that appropriate conservation measures would be satisfactorily implemented. An application may also be refused if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Blackpool Council are not satisfied that accommodation, staffing or management standards are suitable for the proper care and wellbeing of the animals or for the proper conduct of the zoo • the applicant, or if the applicant is an incorporated company, the company or any of the company's directors, managers, secretaries or other similar officers, or a keeper in the zoo, has been convicted of any offence involving the ill-treatment of animals Applications to renew a licence will be considered no later than six months before the expiry of the existing licence. The Secretary of State, after consulting the local authority, may direct them to attach one or more conditions to a licence. Blackpool Council may advise the Secretary of State that, because of the small number of animals kept in the zoo or the small number of the kinds of animal kept there, a direction should be made that that a licence is not required.
Will Tacit Consent Apply?	No. It is in the public interest that Blackpool Council must process your application before it can be granted. If you have not heard from the Council within a reasonable period, please contact us at licensing@blackpool.gov.uk

Failed Application Redress	Please contact Blackpool Council in the first instance. If the applicant is refused a licence, they may appeal to a magistrates' court within 28 days from the date on which the applicant receives written notification of the refusal.
Licence Holder Redress	Please contact Blackpool Council in the first instance. A licence holder may appeal to a Magistrates' court against: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • any condition attached to a licence or any variation or cancellation of a condition • the refusal to approve the transfer of a licence • a zoo closure direction • enforcement steps relating to any unmet condition The appeal must be brought within 28 days from the date on which the licence holder receives written notification of the authority's decision as to the relevant matter.
Consumer Complaint	We would always advise that in the event of a complaint the first contact is made with the trader by you - preferably in the form of a letter (with proof of delivery). If that has not worked, if you are located in the UK, Consumer Direct will give you advice www.consumerdirect.gov.uk From outside the UK contact the UK European Consumer Centre www.ukecc.net Any person who wishes to appeal against a decision to close a zoo may apply to the local Magistrates' court. Appeals must be made within 28 days of the notice of the local authority decision.
Other Redress	Complaints about the operation of the premises should be directed to Blackpool Council Licensing Service licensing@blackpool.gov.uk