

A person is on summary conviction liable to a fine if:

- (i) A designated sports ground is used for an activity requiring a Safety Certificate where either no application has been made for such a Certificate or where the application has been, or is deemed to have been withdrawn.
- (ii) A General Safety Certificate is in force for a stadium which is used for an activity for which the General Safety Certificate or a Special Safety Certificate is in operation in respect of it.
- (iii) Any terms or conditions of a General Safety Certificate or Special Safety Certificate are contravened.
- (iv) Spectators are admitted to a ground in contravention of a notice prohibiting or restricting the use of the ground.

(Section 12 Safety of Sports Grounds Act 1975 as amended).

In relation to regulated stands. The holder of a Safety Certificate is guilty of an offence if:

- (i) Spectators are admitted to a regulated stand where no Safety Certificate which covers the use of the stand is in operation.
- (ii) Any of the terms or conditions of a Safety Certificate for a regulated stand is contravened.

(Section 36 Fire Safety and Safety of Places of Sport Act 1987)

Generally

Where an Authority considers the condition to be such that the public will be at serious risk, a notice prohibiting or restricting the use of all or part of the ground may be issued.

(Section 10 Safety of Sports Ground Act 1975 as amended).
