

Useful Websites for Parents to visit

<http://www.schoolsfinder.direct.gov.uk>

Just enter your postcode, town, local authority name or school name and this site will show your local school. Click on the name of a school and you can see the contact details, the school profile, links to the schools website, OfSTED reports, maps and performance data.

<http://www.direct.gov.uk/en/educationandlearning/schools/index.htm>

This is a National site that has a wealth of information for parents on choosing a school, applying for a school place, school dates and special education needs and much more.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/schools/parents>

This is the BBC's website and has links to leagues tables, how to support your child and areas for children which can help them with homework.

<http://choiceadvice.dfes.gov.uk/dfes2/modules.php?name=Home>

This is the Choice Advisers Website and explains the role of the Choice Adviser and what they can offer to support you.

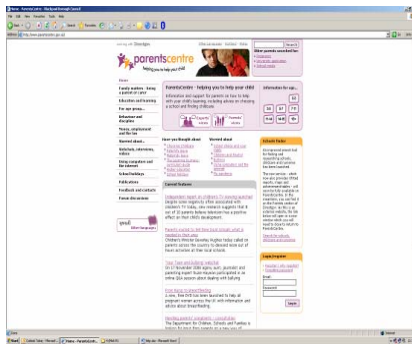

<http://www.ace-ed.org.uk/>

The Advisory Centre for Education (ACE) is an independent advice centre for parents.

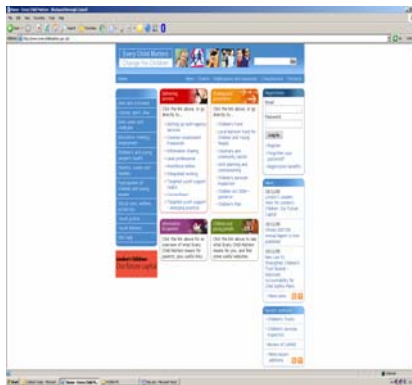

There advice is free and can be obtained by telephone on all education matters from bullying to admissions to special education needs. They also have a wide range of very helpful advice leaflets.

Advice number. 0808 800 5793.

<http://www.parentscentre.gov.uk/>

this site provides Information about Local Authorities, schools and links to performance information and parents rights.

<http://www.everychildmatters.gov.uk/>

The Every Child Matters website.

This is for every child from birth to 19.

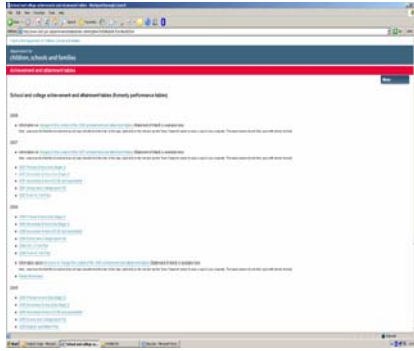

The program places better outcomes for children firmly at the centre of all policies and approaches involving children's services. These outcomes are:

- Be Healthy
- Stay Safe
- Enjoy and achieve
- Make a positive contribution
- Achieve economic well-being

http://www.ofsted.gov.uk/oxcare_providers/list

This is the site for direct access to OfSTED reports on schools in your area. Simply put your postcode in the area provided and select the school you would like to view the report on. It also has information on nurseries and childminders.

<http://www.dcsf.gov.uk/performance-tables/index.shtml?gclid=CKXEjNnj65ACFQnnlAodIjSZrA>

This site provides direct access to the performance tables for schools in your area. Simply click on the particular area you are interested in i.e key stage 3/GCSE and then put your postcode in for all school in the area and it will show a comparison table for you.