Blackpool SEND Local offer relaunch

We have taken recent feedback into account and have relaunched the Blackpool SEND Local Offer. We know that sometimes it is not always easy to find what you are looking for and we have therefore separated advice and information content into a dedicated area. If you are looking for information about local services and what support is available you can find this information within the Blackpool Local Offer SEND directory.

We will be working on further content over the coming months and taking into account any further views.
