Records we hold

Blackpool registration service holds the following records:

- All the births, marriages and deaths registered within its district (Fleetwood and Fylde including Blackpool, Poulton and Kirkham) from 1 July 1837 to 1890
- From 1890 to the present day, we only hold certificates where the birth, marriage or death took place within the local authority district of Blackpool
- Civil partnership records registered in Blackpool since 5 December 2005

Records we do not hold

- The birth certificate issued after you were adopted (if you were legally adopted in the UK.) Please see the information below on how you can apply for this (and your adoption records if required)
- We do not hold current records for events taking place outside of Blackpool. For example if you were born in Oldham you will need to contact Oldham Council. You can search for other Register Offices in England and Wales
- Records for life events that took place in Fylde or Wyre (or in the sub-district of Fleetwood and Fylde) from 1890 will be held at Lancashire Certificate Services.
- For family history enquiries, you may find the LancashireBMD website useful to search for events that have taken place within Lancashire since 1837. The 'coverage' sections shows the dates the records are indexed for each district.
- For events taking place outside of England and Wales, you will need to contact the local authority or foreign country where the event took place.
- Stillbirth certificates (we only hold hold records for recently registered stillbirths and in these instances, only the parent(s) named in the record may apply for a copy certificate)
