Historic townscape characterisation assessments

Last Modified May 05, 2021

Blackpool Council has commissioned several Historic Townscape Characteriation Assessments of areas of Blackpool.

These studies where commissioned to inform the Council about the heritage value of the area, as part of the development of regeneration proposals for the area.

In parallel to this report, a Local List review of the area was undertaken, to advise the Council on buildings having potential for inclusion on a potential list of historic buildings of Local Interest. The locally listed buildings are now available on our website.
