

Gender pay gap report 2023

Last Modified March 20, 2024

1.0 Introduction

From April 2017, all organisations that employee over 250 employees are required to report annually their gender pay gap. The gender pay gap is defined as the differences in the average earnings of men and women over a standard period of time, regardless of their role seniority.

A positive pay gap indicates that men are paid on average a greater hourly rate; a negative pay gap indicates that women are on average a greater hourly rate.

2.0 Context

Blackpool Council is a unitary authority, which provides around 150 services to 142,000 Blackpool residents.

All Blackpool Council employees are remunerated according to set pay scales; posts are regularly reviewed and agreed by employee representatives through a formal job evaluation system. As at 31 March 2023, 2679 employees were in scope for the gender pay gap of which 70.59% were female.

Blackpool Council is committed to eliminating discrimination and encouraging equality and diversity in our workforce. This approach is summarised in our council plan, which outlines 4 key equality objectives.

These include a specific commitment to workforce equality as follows:

We will ensure that the workforce is representative of the community the council serves and equality and diversity is embedded in our staff culture.

In the year ahead we will be establishing a network of staff equality forums which are intended to deepen our engagement and strengthen dialogue here.

What are we required to report?

Type	Description
Mean gender pay gap	The difference between the mean hourly rate of pay of male full-pay relevant employees and that of female full-pay relevant employees
Median gender pay gap	The difference between the median hourly rate of pay of male full-pay relevant employees and that of female full-pay relevant employees
Mean bonus gap	The difference between the mean bonus pay paid to male relevant employees and that paid to female relevant employees

Median bonus gap	The difference between the median bonus pay paid to male relevant employees and that paid to female relevant employees
Quartile pay bands	The proportions of male and female full-pay relevant employees in the lower, lower middle, upper middle and upper quartile pay bands

The overall gender pay gap is defined as the difference between the median (actual midpoint) or mean (average) basic annual earnings of men and women expressed as a percentage of the median or mean basic annual earnings of men.

4.0 Finding

You will see in Figure 1 below that the mean gender pay gap data of - 0.43% and the median gender pay gap -5.72% are generally consistent over the last 4 reporting years.

Figure 1

Type	To March 2017	To March 2018	To March 2019	To March 2020	To March 2021	To March 2022	To March 2023 This year
Published by	April 18	April 19	April 20	April 21	April 22	April 23	April 24

Mean	0.7 %	-1.0%	-0.94%	-0.77%	-0.94	1.15	-0.43
Median	-6.0 %	-5.8%	-6.69%	-5.40%	-6.12	-2.04	-5.72

These figures fair favourably with the national picture. Gender pay gap in the UK which shows in 2023, the gap among full-time employees is 7.7%. Among all employees, the gender pay gap is 14.3% in 2023.

Although these figures are favourable for the council, we are not complacent and will continue to monitor our performance, along with delivering/maintaining initiatives that we have in place which have contributed to these results such as:
