Notice of interim polling districts and polling places review 2022

Last Modified September 16, 2022

In accordance with The Representation of the People Act 1983 each local authority is required to carry out a review of Polling Districts and Polling Places in its area. Blackpool Council's next review will be carried out from 20 September 2022.

The review will be a two stage consultation.

- First stage will be from 20 September 2022 until 10 October 2022
- Second stage will be from 14 October 2022 until 28 October 2022

We are looking for feedback on any aspect of polling districts and polling places currently used and invite representation and comments from interested persons ahead of the 2023 elections.

Local political parties and councillors will be consulted and views are invited from electors and such persons that have particular expertise in relation to access to premises or facilities for persons who have different forms of disability.

Information on the proposed polling districts and polling places can be found on the council's website at www.blackpool.gov.uk or at Town Hall, Talbot Square, Blackpool from the 20 September 2022.

Representations should be sent to the electoral services manager
