

Second Hand Goods Dealers

Eligibility criteria	Persons who deal in second hand goods must be registered unless they fall under certain exemptions. Car dealers, registered scrap metal dealers, charities, recyclers of paper, board, textiles or plastics and people who are registered under the Consumer Credit Act are exempt. Similarly dealers who primarily sell new unused goods are exempt if the supply of second hand goods is incidental to the primary business, e.g. an electrical goods store that sells reconditioned equipment.
Relevant legislation	The County of Lancashire Act 1984 requires dealers in second hand goods to be registered and to keep certain records. You are not permitted to carry on the business of a dealer in Second Hand Goods unless you and the premises from which you trade are registered with Blackpool Council. A copy of the relevant section of the Act is available to view in the 'Publications' section.
Application Evaluation Process	A fee of £205 is payable A Police Constable may enter and inspect the premises at any reasonable time and may do anything that is required to ensure that you're keeping proper records. The Council's Licensing Enforcement Officers may also visit to check that your registration particulars have not changed and that accurate records are being maintained.
Will Tacit Consent Apply?	Yes. This means that you will be able to act as though your application is granted if you have not heard from us by the end of the target completion period.
Failed Application Redress	Please contact Blackpool Council's Licensing Service in the first instance
Licence Holder Redress	Please contact Blackpool Council's Licensing Service in the first instance

Consumer Complaint	We would always advise that in the event of a complaint the first contact is made with the trader by you - preferably in the form of a letter (with proof of delivery). If that has not worked, if you are located in the UK, Consumer Direct will give you advice www.consumerdirect.gov.uk From outside the UK contact the UK European Consumer Centre www.ukecc.net
Other Redress	Complaints about the operation of the premises should be directed to Blackpool Council Licensing Service licensing@blackpool.gov.uk
Additional Guidance Notes	When you have registered you must display a copy of the certificate on the premises and you must inform the Council within 14 days if any of the particulars on the application should change. What records have to be kept? A register must be maintained. The register must be a bound book, and all the pages must be consecutively numbered and pages (even spoiled pages) must not be removed. This register must contain the following information for each and every article acquired by the dealer: (a) Name and address of the seller. (b) The date of the transaction. (c) A description of the article. (d) The quantity of articles (if identical). (e) The registration number of the vehicle used by the vendor when delivering the articles. The register must be kept for two years from the date of the last transaction recorded in the book. Offences It is an offence if you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Carry on the business of a dealer in Second Hand Goods if you and the premises from which you trade are not registered with the Local Authority. • Fail to keep an acquisition book or if you fail to record the required information. • Fail to display a certificate of registration in your premises. • Acquire any second hand goods from a person who is under 16 years of age, even though those goods may be offered to you on behalf of another person. It is also an offence for a person who you acquire second hand goods from to give you a false name or address.

These offences are punishable by fine.

Failure to register with the Licensing Service will result in the police being informed that you are dealing in second hand goods without being registered, and the Council will prosecute you in the Magistrates' Court for failing to register.

Other Relevant Legislation

The Trading Standards Section is responsible for the enforcement of legislation relating to the sale of second hand goods, fireguards, oil filled heaters and lamps, bunk beds, perambulators and push chairs, furniture, gas cookers, toys and electrical fires.

Advice leaflets can be obtained for the Trading Standards Section at the address shown on this leaflet or by telephoning (01253) 478395.

Penalties

Any breach of the County of Lancashire Act is a criminal offence. Similarly all the Trading Standards legislation relating to second hand goods creates criminal offences. For example an offence under the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire)(Safety) Regulations 1998 carries a maximum penalty of £5000 fine and/or 6 months imprisonment.

Furthermore, anyone injured or suffering damage arising from the purchase of unsuitable second hand goods may institute civil proceedings, which your third party liability insurance would possibly fail to cover.

Finally, the sale of stolen goods carries substantial penalties and failure to follow the procedures set out in the County of Lancashire Act and these guidance notes would in themselves indicate a failure to take any reasonable precautions.
