Wish team - Sexual health and relationships support for young people

The wish team offer 1-1 and group support to young people under 18 regarding sexual health and relationship issues. The team offer sexual health and relationships education in schools and training to professionals on how to support young people who engage in risk taking behaviours.

Referrals

Referral is by self referral or can be made by a family member, friend, or professional.

Our work

As well as our 1-1 work with young people, the wish team offers universal education and targeted group work for young people. The wish team co-ordinate the buzz bus, which is a mobile provision that offers sessions to young people at schools and out in the community to get information, advice and guidance on a range of issues.
