Privacy notice

Blackpool Council is the data controller for the personal information you have provided. The council's data protection officer can be contacted at Dataprotectionofficer@blackpool.gov.uk or by writing to Data protection officer, PO Box 4, Blackpool, FY1 1NA.

When you submit a training application to Blackpool Safeguarding Children Board, as well as the training application, we will collect your name, employer, contact phone number and email. Your information will be used to process your training application. We will also use the information to evaluate the service and, we will maintain statistical records of how many people have attended our training but we will anonymise your information when we create the statistics.

We are allowed to ask for your information in order to deliver a multi-agency training programme under the provisions for Local Safeguarding Children Boards in Working Together to Safeguard Children (2015).

Your information will be used by Blackpool Safeguarding Children Board staff in order to process your application and deliver our training programme. We will share your information with others if we are required to do so by law.

We do not transfer your information to a third country (that is a country outside of the EEA) and we do not use the information you have provide for an automated decision-making or profiling.

We will keep your information securely for up to 3 years following end of the business year (1 April – 31 March) in which the course for which you applied was scheduled. It will then be securely destroyed.

You have a number of rights relating to the processing of your information, including the right to access the information we hold about you (via a Subject Access Request), the right to erasure (the right to be forgotten) and the right to have inaccurate data corrected. More information about your rights can be found on the council's website (www.blackpool.gov.uk/privacy), the Information Commissioner's website (www.ico.org.uk) or you can ask for information about these rights from the council's data protection officer.

If we have asked for your consent when you provided the information to us, you have the right to withdraw this consent. This may affect the service we provide to you but you can withdraw your consent by contacting the council's data protection officer.

If you are not happy with how the council has handled your personal information, you can complain to us to give us an opportunity to resolve this with you. You should contact the data protection officer if you have a complaint. Alternatively, you can complain to the Information Commissioner. Their contact details are: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, WILMSLOW, Cheshire, SK9 5AF, Telephone 0303 123 1113 (local rate) or by email to casework@ico.org.uk
