Safeguarding adults

Last Modified March 06, 2020

Who are adults at risk?

Adults at risk are people who need more help than others to stay safe. They are people who may need help to live an independent life. They could be people:

- With disabilities
- With mental health problems
- Who are ill for a long time
- Who are old

What is adult abuse?

Abuse is when someone's human and civil rights are violated by someone else.

There are many types of abuse; some examples are:

- Physical
- Emotional
- Neglect
- Sexual
- Discriminatory
- Institutional
- Financial

Different people may abuse adults at risk; some examples are:

- Friends and family
- Social and health care professionals and volunteers
- Residential care staff
- Other people in a position of trust

The signs of abuse

There are many possible signs of abuse. Some examples include when the person:

- Has health and social care needs that are not being met
- Looks dirty or is not dressed properly
- Has an injury that is difficult to explain
- Seems frightened around certain people

Even if you're not sure whether these signs mean abuse, if you are concerned about yourself or someone else you can talk to an experienced member of Blackpool Council's adult social care staff to share your anxieties.

Safeguarding

Safeguarding means protecting an adult's right to live in safety, free from abuse or neglect. We aim to make safeguarding personal, so we try to achieve the wishes and goals of the person at risk.

You can see a summary of our Pan Lancashire Multi Agency Safeguarding Policy and Procedures.

Blackpool Safeguarding Adults Board

Agencies across Blackpool work together to reduce the likelihood of harm to people at risk, and to respond appropriately to concerns about harm when they occur. You can read more about:
