

APPENDIX 14A

SPECIFIED REGISTRATION DISTRICTS IN ENGLAND AND WALES

Please note: A notice of marriage, where one or both parties is subject to immigration control, may be given at service points within the district other than at the register offices named below, provided that the notice is taken by a superintendent registrar or deputy superintendent registrar. It is however for the Proper Officer to determine the appropriate service points (if any) within the district in these circumstances.

The legislation in respect of civil partnerships is different, and does not permit notices to be taken at locations other than the office specified in regulations.
