Infusion Research

Last Modified April 16, 2020

Our service

The service conducts research, consultations, insight and evaluation across the public, private and voluntary sectors.

As a local government service the Infusion team operates on a cost recovery basis and provides an affordable option for research solutions locally, regionally and nationally.

Infusion has a core team of specialist research officers and assistants experienced in designing and delivering bespoke research and evaluation solutions.

The service also has an innovative fieldwork model operating in the Fylde coast area which offers face-to-face interviewing.

If you are looking to commission some research work, please contact us through the form below.
